Colored Delegates Said to Be in Majority-A Fire-Corn Crop.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch, AUGUST 26, 1886.

Political matters are rather quiet just now. The Republican City Convention, which is to elect delegates to the Conessional Nominating Convention, will set on Saturday, and, of course, interest attaches to its action. Senator Mahone is still at Old Point; Governor Cameron is away from the city on business; and Senator Gaines is supposed to be looking after his interests in other parts of the district. Probably one or more of them may drop into town by the day of the meeting of the City Convention. There is not much prospect that the colored people of the district. who are in such a large majority, will make any demand for the nomination of a member of their race for Congress. though it is believed that the colored delegates will largely outnumber the white in the Convention. At the ward meetings in this city the other night the colofed people were in the majority. and the system heretofore in vogue of electing an equal number of white and colored delegates was dispensed with. Most of the delegates from the counties are colored men. Being thus in the majority, it remains to be seen whether they will exercise their ability to control the proceedings of the Convention, or will themselves submit to being conolled. It may safely be said that the Republican party in this district at this time is not a happy family.

The Upper-District Portsmouth Baptist Association will meet in annual session in Greensville county, beyond Hicksford, in a day or two, and the meeting will continue several days, with interesting exercises.

The corn crop on good highlands in this section is reported to be unusually fine. A gentleman from one of the James-river counties, who has one hundred and twenty-five acres in corn, says he will gather ten barrels per acre from his fields.

The public schools of this city will open for the fall session on the 1st day of September. During the vacation the buildings have all been thoroughly repaired and renovated.

Favorable responses are being received not only from within, but from beyond the State, in answer to the circulars some time ago sent out relative to the kirmes to be held here in November in aid of the new hall of the Petersburg Musical Association. Liberal contributions in money and articles have been promised for the enterprise, and our own people are taking such interest in the matter as to assure the most gratifying success.

The scheme of a railway from the city to the Central Lunatic Asylum and the granite quarries in that immediate vicinity has been broached. It is declared that such a road would prove a profitable investment, but it is feared the necessary amount for construction purposes would be hard to raise.

It is reported that Mr. John Shell, a citizen of Swift-Creek village, was accidentally cut across the forehead yesterday during a friendly wrestlingmatch with a companion.

BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS. A Gay Season-The Amusements-Ger-

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] AUGUST 25, 1886.

Never was the season at this lovely little nest gayer than now. The place is thronged with guests, and the beautiful young girls and gay, handsome beaux are constantly planning new amusements.

Last Thursday Mr. George Mose, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Arthur Selden, of New York; Mr. Frank Haynes, of Petersburg, Va.; Mr. John Pickett, of Norfolk; Bob Anderson and Mr. Frank Andrews, of Vicksburg, and Dr. Moreland, of Atlanta, Ga., gave the following ladies a "straw ride"; Mrs. Sublette, of St. Louis, chaperoned Miss Mamie Lee, of Lynchburg; Miss Nellie Lottier, of Richmond; Miss Alice Clark, of Augusta, Ga.; Miss Lucy Stone, of Petersburg; Misses Sophia Pickett and Annie Martin, of Norfolk, and Miss Mammie Foster, of Georgia. The 300 guests witnessed the departure of the wagon-load. The party went three miles beyond Buford's, and, rening at 9:30 P. M., had supper, and ended the evening by giving three cheers and a bumper for Mr. Phil. Brown.

Friday morning the same ladies gave demen a progressive-euchre par-The first prize for the ladies was won by Miss Nellie Lottier, of Richmond, and the ladies' booby prize by Miss Maggie Higgins, of Norfolk. Friday evening the eighth german took place, and as usual the girls looked like a bouquet of lovely fresh flowers. The german was led by Mr. John Pickett, of Norfolk, and Miss Kate Lee Holland, of Danville. Miss Holland was looking lovely in pale-blue surah, Oriental lace, and elegant diamonds. Owing to a lack of time I cannot tell you the dresses that each one were, but Miss Branhant, of Rome, Ge., was the acknowledged belle. She wore heliotrope brocade, crystal trimmings, and diamonds. Miss Cora Richardson of New Orleans, Miss Marion Sybly of Augusta, and Miss So-phia Pickett of Norfolk, also looked very bandsome; but I will have to stop, not surely for lack of handsome girls, but for the above-named reason. Sunday evening we had a rare treat in the form of a lecture by Rev. Dr. Wharton, of Montgomery, Ala. Cor-tainly every one who had the good fortune to be present listened attentively to the "Voices from a Buried City." The little folks had a german Monday evening. Professor A. Bellezza was the only "big gentleman" there, and he led the german with little Miss Edna Andrews, of Vicksburg. Her dress, a combination of white surah and satin brocade, was a marvel of beauty. Sha was the first of a perfect troop of little fairies, whose dancing certainly reflected credit upon their teacher.

Professor Bellezza delighted the lookers-on with a perfect rendition of the Sailer's Hornpipe, and two of his pupils, Miss Edna Andrews and Virginia McCloud, of Richmond, danced the Highland Fling beautifully; and Parks. The Democrats of this district they all went to bed "happy as big are certainly stronger than ever they sun-flowers."

Invitations are out for the german which Miss Foster, of Augusta, Ga., will give to-morrow night. Drno.

ADJOURNED SINE DIE. No Result in the Eignth-District Dem

occutte Convention. (Special telegram to the Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., August 26 .-A recess from 12 to 3 A. M. was given last night to allow, under Mr. Nicol's motion, four friends of the prominent candidates-Lee, Meredith, Hume, and Foster-together with the candidates, to unanimously recommend a line of action for the Convention. This last resort proved to be unsuccessful. When the Convention reassembled at 3 e'clock the committee proposed that Messrs. Lee, Hume, Meredith, and Foster withdraw in favor of Hon. John S. Barbour, and all agreed to this but General Lee, who positively refused to to so, saying that, as he had a majority of the delegates, the Convention would have to nominate him or adjourn without making a nomination.

Several ballots were taken between the prominent candidates with the same result as before. Resolutions were then offered by Captain A. D. Payne endorsing the preent Administration and were adopted almost unanimously. The Convention adjourned at 5 A. M. sine die.

Beath of W. H. Goodwin.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch. ARRINGTON, NELSON CO., VA.,]

Mr. William H. Goodwin died last night at his home, on Tye river, in the eighty-first year of his age. Mr. Goodwin was one of the most remarkable men in this section of Virginia, and was generally conceded to be the best farmer in the county. Among the trophies brought home by the French army from their Eastern expeditions is a specimen of a bird rarely if at all seen in Europe. This is the celebrated Chinese, or rather Manchoorian, lark. He is a larger bird than his European congener; his notes are more brilliant, and his natural repertoire, if the expression may be used, is more extensive. But the most noticeable feature is his wonderful promptness and skill of mimicry.

Claims of the Counties-Prominent Names ... Navy-Yard Notes-A Brighter Outlook-Negro Drowned.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] AUGUST 26, 1886. The six districts of the county finished yesterday the election of Democratic delegates to the Hampton Convention. The country people are loudly clamoring for the nominee for Con-gress this time, and a strong effort will be made in the upper part of the district to defeat the cities. If the counties are successful the nomination will be between Captain John H. Wright, of Suffolk, and Dr. J. F. Bryant, of Southampton county. Suffolk, and Dr. J. F. Bryant, of Southsuppon county. The men in the two cities most prominently spoken of now for the position are Captain R. C. Marshall, Judge James E. Heath, Colonel L. D. Starke, and Commodore Marshall

Parks. The Democrats of this district are certainly stronger than ever were before, and whoever gets the nomination has a fair chance of success.
Dr. Bryant is in the city to-day looking after his interests.

A colored Indian doctor, calling himself "Dr. Payne, of Washington, D.
C.," died from poison by strychnine at Windsor, N. C., on Wednesday, Several negroes have been arrested and imprisoned on suspicion of having murdered the Doctor for his money.

The plants of the equipment department and the yards and docks department of the Washington navy-yard are to be brought here, and the manufacture of galleys and anchors at this yard for the equipment department will then be an extensive industry, employing a large number of mechanics who are iron-workers.

The Masonic Mutual Beneficial Association has passed out of existence. The cause is that all efforts to increase the membership in Virginia, now less than 400, have proved abortive. The amount on hand being too small to justify a winding up of the concern and distribution of the assets, an arrangement has been made by the directory by which the members can be transferred to the
